You acknowledge that you are solely responsible for all orders (whether successfully entered or attempted to be entered) that are associated with your unique customer identifiers, including, but not limited to, your Account number, customer identification number, or your unique user login credentials. You understand that tastyworks' acceptance of an order for placement, which includes, but is not limited to, Firm representatives, the tastyworks platform, email, chat or phone, does not constitute a guarantee of any kind that your order will be placed as all orders are subject to your account maintaining sufficient margin to support the resulting position. You acknowledge that tastyworks and the Clearing Firm reserve the right to set and/or change, without prior notice to you, minimum equity amounts for your Account. You hereby acknowledge your responsibility to do the following:

- (a) to be aware of current margin requirements with respect to all trading activity; and
- (b) to meet all initial and maintenance margin requirements; and
- (c) to be liable for the losses incurred on all of your trades, regardless of whether sufficient margin was posted at the time the trade was ordered.

You acknowledge that under no circumstances, including, but not limited to, electronic or mechanical failure, Internet system failure or delay, Exchange limitations or halts, acts of God, terrorism, or any other reason, shall tastyworks be liable or have direct responsibility to you in the event that any of the following should occur:

If tastyworks believes that execution or attempted execution of any of your orders may breach any Applicable Rules and Regulations including but not limited to SEC, FINRA, CBOE, ISE or any other US Exchange Rules or Firm policies, tastyworks may, in its sole discretion, delay or refuse to execute any purchase or sale order for your Account at any time.

6. Market Orders, Limit, And Day Orders

You understand and acknowledge that when you place a market order, the price of the security may change between the time the order is placed and the time it is executed. A quote obtained at the time a market order is entered is not a guarantee that all or part of your order will be executed at the quoted price.

You understand that when you place a market order after an Exchange, association, electronic communications network or market is closed, the security may open for trading the next business day at a price substantially higher or lower than what you had originally entered. Large market orders may be executed in multiple lots, and at different prices. You understand that generally a market order is subject to immediate execution and cannot be canceled once it is entered. You agree that any attempt you make to cancel a market order is simply a "request" to have that order canceled and that actual cancellation of the order cannot be guaranteed. You understand that limit orders will be executed only at the specified price entered by you or better, but there is the possibility that the limit order will not be executed. All day orders will be typically cancelled at the end of the trading day 3:00pm CT or when applicable to 3:15pm CT for certain option symbols including index options.

7. Commissions And Fees

You agree to pay tastyworks' brokerage commissions, transaction, processing, clearing fees, market data fees, other fees, and taxes as they exist from time to time and apply to your Account. You acknowledge that tastyworks reserves the right to change its commissions and fees in its sole discretion separate from any changes that the Clearing Firm makes to its fees. tastyworks will make relevant information about such commissions and fees, including any update that the Clearing Firm provides that is applicable to tastyworks' Customer Accounts, available on the Firm's website at www.tastyworks.com. Furthermore, you acknowledge that tastyworks may deduct all fees directly from your Account and your execution of this Agreement serves as your authorization for the Firm to do so. You understand that profit and loss calculations on the trading platform or your account statements may not include commissions, fees or other transaction costs, and do not reflect the impact such costs will have on actual results.

8. Payment Of Indebtedness Upon Demand

You acknowledge and agree that you will be liable at all times for the payment upon demand, of any debit balance, liability, and indebtedness owing in your Account. Furthermore, you acknowledge and agree that you will be liable for any deficiency remaining in your Account in the event of a liquidation thereof in whole or in part by you or by tastyworks or the Clearing Firm, and you shall make payment of such obligations upon demand.

9. Interest On Debit Balances and Costs Of Collection

Debit balances in your Account may be charged interest in accordance with tastyworks' then-current interest rate schedule for debit balances. You agree to pay tastyworks all reasonable costs and expenses of enforcement or collection of any debit balance or other liabilities, including legal fees.

10. Dividend Reinvestment Program

You acknowledge that in order to automatically reinvest your dividends in the security, you must contact tastyworks and opt in for enrollment in the Dividend Reinvestment Program ("Reinvestment"). Enrollment requests will take effect within three (3) business days at a minimum. If enrollment is in effect prior to the ex-dividend date for a distribution, the distribution will be eligible for Reinvestment. In order for your securities to be eligible for dividend reinvestment, they must be in your tastyworks Account held at the designated Clearing Firm. It is your responsibility to explicitly state to tastyworks whether individual securities or all eligible securities in your Account should be enrolled in Reinvestment. You acknowledge that all eligible securities, including securities purchased in the future, will automatically participate in Reinvestment if you elect to have your entire tastyworks Account set up for dividend reinvestment. Once you are enrolled in Reinvestment, all eligible cash distributions will be reinvested on all securities you selected for dividend reinvestment, provided that you are the Account Owner of record on the record date for determining shareholders eligible to receive dividends, and continue to hold the securities through the payable date. If you are a margin Account Owner, you agree that it is possible that the Clearing Firm will borrow a dividend-paying stock in the normal course of business and, as a result, instead of receiving a dividend payment you may receive a "cash-in-lieu" payment. In the event you receive a "cash-in-lieu" payment, you authorize the Clearing Firm to handle such payment as if it was not "in-lieu" and reinvest it accordingly.

You acknowledge that the Clearing Firm may facilitate Reinvestment by purchasing shares in the open market and, as a result, the purchase price for the new shares may not be known before the dividend is reinvested. Furthermore, you acknowledge that participation in Reinvestment may result in the purchase of fractional shares of securities.

You acknowledge that you may terminate your participation in Reinvestment, or terminate the enrollment of individual securities in Reinvestment, at any time by contacting tastyworks. Termination requests will take effect within three (3) business days at a minimum. If termination is in effect prior to the ex-dividend date for a distribution, the distribution will not be eligible for Reinvestment. Furthermore, you acknowledge that your notice to terminate will not affect any obligations that may result from transactions initiated prior to tastyworks' receipt of your notice. You agree that your participation in Reinvestment is voluntary and that tastyworks has not made any recommendation with respect to your participation or regarding the purchase of any eligible security.

11. Responsibility Regarding Certain Securities

Certain securities may grant a holder valuable rights that may expire unless a holder takes some action. You acknowledge that tastyworks reserves the right to reject, at its own discretion, participation instructions in a voluntary corporate action. You acknowledge that tastyworks may, upon receipt of participation instructions, restrict trading in your Account or remove applicable securities from your Account until the corporate action is completed. You acknowledge that you are responsible for maintaining any assets in your account necessary to facilitate completion of any voluntary corporate action for which you provided participation instructions and you are responsible for any positions resulting from participation and trading. 26. SIPC Protection tastyworks is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). Therefore, funds are available to meet customer claims up to $500,000, which includes a maximum of $250,000 for cash claims. Apex, as the Clearing Firm, has arranged for coverage above the SIPC limits; please contact tastyworks for more information. For additional information on SIPC coverage, including a brochure upon request, please contact SIPC at 202-371-8300 or asksipc@sipc.org. You can also visit the SIPC website at www.sipc.org.

27. Auto-Sweep Program

You understand and agree that if you have a tastyworks Securities Account and a tastyworks Futures Account that if available cash is held in the Futures Account at the end of the trading day, such available cash is automatically swept from the Futures Account to the Securities Account. You acknowledge that regardless of where your available cash is held, Applicable Rules require proper segregation of your and other Customers' assets from tastyworks' and the Clearing Firm's assets. You further acknowledge that transferring available cash from your Futures Account to your Securities Account will result in you not receiving preferential treatment afforded for funds held in a Futures Account pursuant to Part 190 of the CFTC regulations and the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, any funds you hold in a Securities Account for the purpose of purchasing securities or held in a portfolio margin account carried as a Securities Account are protected by SIPC. You should refer to the above paragraph or to the SIPC website, <http://www.sipc.org> for more information regarding SIPC coverage.

As permitted by Applicable Rules, you agree that tastyworks may, in its sole discretion, and without prior notice to you, transfer excess funds or collateral between your Securities and Futures Accounts in such amount as tastyworks deems may reasonably be required to avoid margin calls or to reduce or satisfy any deficit, or other liability. You acknowledge that funds will not be credited to your Account until the funds are actually transferred.

28. Payment For Order Flow

Pursuant to SEC Rule 606, all broker-dealers are required by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") to inform their customers of payment for order flow arrangements and practices at the time of account opening and annually thereafter. tastyworks routes orders for execution to unaffiliated broker-dealers who may act as a market-maker or facilitate execution of the orders in other market centers. tastyworks considers a number of factors in evaluating execution quality, including execution price, opportunities for price improvement, order size, the trading characteristics of the security, speed and accuracy of executions, the availability of efficient and reliable order-handling systems and market data, liquidity, the likelihood of execution of limit orders, and execution costs. tastyworks may also use discretion in selecting a particular broker-dealer or market center in which to route customer orders. Price improvement occurs when an order is executed at a price more favorable than the displayed national best bid or national best offer. tastyworks receives monetary remuneration from other-broker dealers or market centers to which orders are routed. Quarterly information regarding the broker-dealers or market centers to which tastyworks routes orders and receives remuneration is available on the tastyworks website at www.tastyworks.com. The source and amount of such remuneration will be furnished upon written request.

29. Anti-Money Laundering And Customer Identification Program

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

- Name, Address, Date of birth
- Identification number:
 - U.S. citizen: social security number or employer identification number.
 - Non-U.S. citizen: taxpayer identification number; passport number and country of issuances; alien identification card number; or government-issued identification disclosing nationality, residence and a photograph of you.

tastyworks reserves the right to collect other information and identifying documents to aid in verifying your identity, such as, but not limited to, a valid, non-expired form of government issued photo identification (i.e. driver's license or passport). For verification purposes, tastyworks may also utilize a third-party information provider and/or service.

A corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity opening an account will need to provide a valid taxpayer identification number ("TIN"), and may need to provide other and/or additional information such as, but not limited to, its principal place of business, local office, government-issued business license, certified articles of incorporation, a partnership agreement, or a trust agreement. Due to the nature of the account type, tastyworks will not open private banking accounts at this time.

The rules set forth by the U.S. Department of Treasury, SEC, Commodities Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), FINRA, and the National Futures Association ("NFA") may also require tastyworks to collect additional information such as your net worth, annual income, occupation, employment information, investment experience, investment objectives, and risk tolerance.

tastyworks reserves the right to not open an account or carry out transactions for you if your identity cannot be verified. If you have an existing Account, tastyworks reserves the right to close the Account at any point in time if your identity cannot be verified as part of tastyworks' ongoing effort to prevent fraud.

30. Arbitration

This Agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. You acknowledge that by executing this Agreement you agree to the following with respect to arbitration:

- (i) All parties to this Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- (ii) (ii) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.

- (iii) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- (iv) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
- (v) The panel of arbitrators may include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- (vi) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- (vii) The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Agreement.
- (viii) No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any predispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (a) the class certification is denied; or (b) the class is decertified; or (c) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

Any controversy, claim (statutory or otherwise), cause of action or other dispute among the parties, whether or not arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, shall be resolved by binding arbitration before a sole, neutral arbitrator (for claims of $100,000 or less) or a panel of three (3) neutral arbitrators (for claims in excess of $100,000). The arbitration shall be administered by FINRA pursuant to FINRA's Customer Code of Arbitration Procedure. The arbitration shall exclusively be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 USC § 1-16, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof. This clause shall not preclude the parties from seeking provisional remedies in aid of arbitration from a court of appropriate jurisdiction or from seeking remedies in small claims court for disputes or claims within the scope of its jurisdiction. The parties shall make reasonable efforts prior to submitting any claim or dispute to arbitration to resolve the matters through mediation. Arbitration proceedings held pursuant to this Agreement shall be conducted at a location determined by the Director of the Office of Dispute Resolution at FINRA. The arbitration panel will determine what amount and portion of the hearing session fees shall be paid by each of the parties.

31. Severability

If any court, arbitration panel, other tribunal, regulatory or self-regulatory agency or body, shall deem any provision or condition of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall adhere only to such provision or condition. The validity of the remaining provisions and conditions shall not be affected thereby and this Agreement shall be carried out as if any such invalid or unenforceable provision or conditions were not contained herein.
